

Institutional Program Accreditation, Approval or Licensure

Each institution must make available to prospective and enrolled students names of associations, agencies, or governmental bodies that accredit, approve, or license the institution and its programs; and procedures for obtaining or reviewing documents describing accreditation, approval, or licensing.

The University is accredited to offer associate, baccalaureate, master's and the doctorate degree by the Higher Learning Commission, 230 LaSalle Street, Suite 7-500, Chicago Illinois 60604: telephone: (800) 621-7440, <https://hlcommission.org/>.

In addition to Higher Learning Commission accreditation, Olivet has received accreditation in each of these programs.

In addition, Olivet is accredited by the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education, Midwest Association of Graduate Schools, and the Associated Colleges of Illinois; and holds membership in the Federation of Independent Illinois Colleges and Universities, the Council for Advancement and Support of Education, the Association of Governing Boards of Universities and Colleges, and the Council for Christian Colleges and Universities. It is a member of the Associated Colleges of the Chicago Area, with the privilege of selective use of the Argonne National Laboratories for research and education purposes.

Olivet carries on a sustained program of self-study in the belief that improvement is a continuous process. Its faculty is competent for the duties assigned. An effort is made to bring a genuine academic challenge to every student. This is done with the conviction that the impact of Christian lives can be increased by the excellence of scholarship, logical thought and effectiveness in communication (the Catalog, pg. 6).

Graduate and Professional Education

Institutions must make available to current and prospective students information regarding the types of graduate and professional education in which graduates of the institutions 4-year degree programs enrolled, the source of the information, and any time frames and methodology associated with it.

In March every year graduates from the prior May receive the ONU Graduate Questionnaire and are asked to self-report either employment or full-time or part-time student status in graduate school. The following presents student responses to the survey.
