

University Honors Program

Along with your Honors application, attach a two-page essay, typed and double spaced, in response to one of the prompts below. Your essay should demonstrate the characteristics of effective writing. It will be read by the ONU faculty members who will interview you during your visit. Please be sure to include your name on the document.

- Who is/was the most important person to live in the 20th or 21st century? Why?
- Oscar Wilde has said that the pure and simple truth is never pure or simple. Tell about a truth you have discovered that fits this description.
- According to journalist Walter Lippmann, "The opposition is indispensable. A good statesman, like any other sensible human being, always learns more from his opposition than from his fervent supporters." Do you agree or disagree with this observation? Why?
