

Bachelor of Science in Accounting

Status of Educational Requirements by State

Abbr	State	Status	Year Last Reviewed
AL	Alabama	Not Met	2021
AK	Alaska	Met	2021
AZ	Arizona	Met	2021
AR	Arkansas	Met	2021
CA	California	Met	2021
CO	Colorado	Not Met	2021
CT	Connecticut	Met	2021
DE	Delaware	Met	2021
FL	Florida	Met	2021
GA	Georgia	Met	2021
HI	Hawaii	Met	2021
ID	Idaho	Met	2021
IL	Illinois	Met	2021
IN	Indiana	Met	2021
IA	Iowa	Met	2021
KS	Kansas	Not Met	2021
KY	Kentucky	Met	2021
LA	Louisiana	Met	2021
ME	Maine	Met	2021
MD	Maryland	Met	2021
MA	Massachusetts	Met	2021
MI	Michigan	Met	2021
MN	Minnesota	Met	2021
MS	Mississippi	Met	2021
MO	Missouri	Met	2021
MT	Montana	Met	2021
NE	Nebraska	Met	2021
NV	Nevada	Met	2021
NH	New Hampshire	Met	2021
NJ	New Jersey	Not Met	2021
NM	New Mexico	Met	2021
NY	New York	Met	2021
NC	North Carolina	Met	2021
ND	North Dakota	Met	2021
OH	Ohio	Met	2021
OK	Oklahoma	Not Met	2021
OR	Oregon	Met	2021
PA	Pennsylvania	Met	2021
RI	Rhode Island	Met	2021
SC	South Carolina	Not Met	2021
SD	South Dakota	Met	2021
TN	Tennessee	Not Met	2021

Bachelor of Science in Accounting

Status of Educational Requirements by State

Abbr	State	Status	Year Last Reviewed
TX	Texas	Met	2021
UT	Utah	Met	2021
VT	Vermont	Met	2021
VA	Virginia	Met	2021
WA	Washington	Met	2021
WV	West Virginia	Met	2021
WI	Wisconsin	Met	2021
WY	Wyoming	Met	2021
	Territories/District	Status	Year Last Reviewed
GU	Guam	Met	2021
	Northern Mariana Islands	Met	2021
PR	Puerto Rico	Met	2021
VI	U.S. Virgin Islands	Met	2021
DC	Washington D.C.	Met	2021

NOTES

Alabama: Accounting hours must include 9 Hours in Financial Accounting, 6 hours in auditing, 6 hours in tax, 3 hours in management accounting, 3 hours in government and not-for-profit, 6 hours in accounting electives and 3 hours in business law, all of upper level classes.

Colorado: Of the 27 hours, 6 must be auditing, 3 of which must cover GAAS; 3 accounting ethics hours are also required.

Kansas: At least 42 credits outside of accounting are required. Eleven hours in written or oral communication are required as well. Macro, Micro, and another upper division economics course are required. Two business law classes, statistics, computer applications, management, marketing, college math, and a class in production, operations research, or applications of quantitative techniques to business problems course required. An upper-level accounting systems class is required as well.

New Jersey: Accounting hours must include municipal and government accounting; 36 business hours required, including 6 hours of business law, 6 hours of finance, 6 hours in economics, and 18 other business hours.

Oklahoma: One auditing course is required. Seventy-two upper division credits are required, 9 of which must be business-related.

South Carolina: Accounting hours must cover financial accounting, managerial accounting, tax, and audit; 24 hours must be upper level. An additional 24 hours in business classes required as well.

Tennessee: Of the 30 accounting hours, 24 hours must be upper division. An additional 24 business hours, 12 of which must be upper division, are required as well.