

Doctor of Education: Ethical Leadership (Ed.D)

Doctoral Program – 60 Credit Hours – 15 Courses

Online or Hybrid

Time to complete: In as little as 32 months

With the Ed.D. in Ethical Leadership, you will explore leadership paradigms and develop a framework for how ethics, values and cultural influences transform society. This degree enables you to apply expertise to the study of ethics, leadership, and change management to strategically interact with other thought leaders to make an impact in your professional setting. This program serves professionals in a variety of fields including but not limited to, For-profit and Nonprofit settings, Public Service, Education, Business, Ministry, Healthcare, and Military.

Courses

- Online Colloquium
- Research Theory: Principles and Methods
- Research: Qualitative Methods and Techniques
- Research: Quantitative Methods and Techniques
- Leadership Paradigms
- Dissertation in Practice A
- Interpersonal Leadership
- Ethics, Values and Cultural Influences on Social Transformation
- Intrapersonal Leadership
- Dissertation in Practice B
- Policy, Politics, and Social Action
- Leading Change
- Covenant Leadership
- Management and Strategic Planning
- Dissertation in Practice C

Pricing

Program	Full Price	Partner Pricing
Doctor of Education: Ethical Leadership	$42,000	$33,600

Doctor of Education Admissions Requirements:

- A completed Application to Olivet.
- An earned master's degree from a regionally accredited institution or equivalent.
- Official transcripts of all graduate credits from previously attended colleges/ universities
- Attained a graduate level GPA of 3.25 or higher.
- A résumé or curriculum vitae which demonstrates professional experiences reflecting readiness to enter a doctoral program.
- Letter of Intent
-

The Olivet Undergraduate On-Campus Experience

Located in Bourbonnais, Illinois, the 275-acre campus is home to 2,500+ undergraduate students who pursue 140 areas of study. Life at Olivet is filled with dozens of groups and activities, athletics and intramurals, music, chapel, and countless opportunities for Christian fellowship.

To learn more about the On-Campus experience and programs offered, visit: Olivet.edu