

ONU Leadership Scholarship Essay Questions

The ONU Leadership Scholarship was created to celebrate the unique leadership abilities of our students. Every leader is different, which means every application should look different, too. The short-answer essay prompts below are a required part of your application and help us understand your leadership in your own words. You are also welcome to submit additional materials if you'd like to further showcase your strengths. We're seeking a diverse group of leaders, and your creativity is always welcome as you help us get to know you.

Answers to the following questions will be a required part of your application with a maximum allowance of 250 words per question. Please prepare accordingly:

Q1: What does servant-leadership mean to you? Describe how you would define it and share examples from your life experiences or examples that you have observed in others' lives.

Q2: Describe a situation where you took on a servant-leadership role to meet a need. What did you learn about yourself, and how has that experience shaped the kind of leader you aspire to be?
