NOT APPROVED STATES:

Presently, Olivet Nazarene University has not yet made the determination that our Family Nurse Practitioner (FNP) track fulfills the educational requirements required for Advanced Practice Registered Nurse (APRN) professional state licensure for employment as a certified FNP in the following states:

Alabama	Louisiana	New York	Tennessee
Arizona	Mississippi	Oregon	Washington
California	New Hampshire	Pennsylvania	Wyoming
Georgia

Important:

Please note that some states may have additional requirements for clinical hours, specific preceptor qualifications, and/or documentation (e.g., a state may require 750 clinical hours). Please check with your respective states on their educational requirements needed to obtain the state's Advanced Practice Registered Nurse (APRN) licensure. This includes any state(s) that you may consider moving to in the future.

It is essential that you notify the Online Advising Team (onlineadvising@olivet.edu) of any address changes while you are in the FNP track. Please note that even if you reside in an approved state, you are not permitted to complete your practicum hours in a state that is listed under the Not Approved States above.

Students switching tracks or returning to the FNP track will need to comply with the requirements above. For additional information or guidance, please contact GraduateNursing@olivet.edu.
