Honors Program Application Essay Prompt

Write a 500- to 650-word essay responding to the prompt below. Your essay should demonstrate the characteristics of effective writing and will be evaluated by the ONU faculty members who will interview you. Please use spacing to separate paragraphs. You do NOT need to include your name, date, or a title. (We suggest that you first compose your essay in a word processor so that you can save your progress, then copy and paste the text of your essay into the application form).

> What do you feel is the greatest challenge currently facing our society, and how can the tools and techniques of Christian scholarship help to address this? Please include discussion or examples of how your high school experiences have shaped your response.

Note: Your essay should be 100% your own work. This means no assistance in writing, proofreading, or editing from any AI resource. Evidence of AI use will be considered grounds for application rejection.

If you have any questions, please email Honors@olivet.edu